

InRegister

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA SINCE 1988

We take you there ...

BR Gallery

1442 City Park Ave.

383-1470, www.batonrougegallery.org

Exhibit featuring artist members Cody Bush, a sculptor from Carencro, and Preston Gilchrist, a painter from Alexandria, is on display Aug. 3-28. An opening reception is Aug. 6 from 7-9 p.m. August's Movies & Music on the Lawn showcases Alfred Hitchcock's "The Manxman" Aug. 30 at 8 p.m. or sunset, whichever comes last. Local band Epic provides live music as soundtrack.

Gallery N

137 Alella Dr.

324.8936, www.galleryN.net

Installation art exhibit showcasing works by Ashley Dykes and Robin Akkerman. Opening reception is Aug. 16 from 7-10 p.m. Show runs through Aug. 30.

LASM

100 South River Road

344-5272, www.lasm.org

"Myth & Magic": Recent Paintings by Michael Crespo, and William Greiner: "Fallen Paradise, Photographs of New Orleans 1995-2005" continues on display through Sept. 28. Greiner discusses the documentary aspect of his work and his relocation to Baton Rouge in the wake of Katrina Aug. 3 at 2:15 p.m. as part of LASM's Artist Perspectives. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Art curator Elizabeth Weinstein, Crespo and Greiner conduct a special tour of these works Aug. 22 from 5-7 p.m. for this month's Fine Art, Fine Wine.

The music of U2 is featured in the Pennington Planetarium's newest full-dome production. It joins Pink Floyd's Dark Side of the Moon, which returns by popular demand. Both shows are every Saturday in August.

Jon Elvert explores The Perseids Meteor Shower Aug. 12 at 7 p.m. A tour of the season's night sky, identifying constellations and planets, is included.

Also playing in the Planetarium are "TimeSpace," an adventure covering the Big Bang, the doom of the dinosaurs, the sudden appearance of Halley's Comet in the Yucatan Sky and Apollo 11's moon landing to the year 3001, and "The Milky Way," an interactive exhibit depicting the stars of the entire Milky Way as seen from Earth.

Michael Crespo, Elizabeth Weinstein,
William Greiner & Sam Losavio

BR Gallery

1442 City Park Ave.

383-1470, www.batonrougegalleries.org

Exhibit featuring artist members Cody Bush, a sculptor from Carencro, and Preston Gilchrist, a painter from Alexandria, is on display Aug. 3-28. An opening reception is Aug. 6 from 7-9 p.m. August's Movies & Music on the Lawn showcases Alfred Hitchcock's "The Manxman" Aug. 30 at 8 p.m. or sunset, whichever comes last. Local band Epic provides live music as soundtrack.

Gallery N

137 Alella Dr.

324.8936, www.galleryN.net

Installation art exhibit showcasing works by Ashley Dykes and Robin Akkerman. Opening reception is Aug. 16 from 7-10 p.m. Show runs through Aug. 30.

LASM

100 South River Road

344-5272, www.lasm.org

"Myth & Magic": Recent Paintings by Michael Crespo, and William Greiner: "Fallen Paradise, Photographs of New Orleans 1995-2005" continues on display through Sept. 28. Greiner discusses the documentary aspect of his work and his relocation to Baton Rouge in the wake of Katrina Aug. 3 at 2:15 p.m. as part of LASM's Artist Perspectives. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Art curator Elizabeth Weinstein, Crespo and Greiner conduct a special tour of these works Aug. 22 from 5-7 p.m. for this month's Fine Art, Fine Wine.

The music of U2 is featured in the Pennington Planetarium's newest full-dome production. It joins Pink Floyd's Dark Side of the Moon, which returns by popular demand. Both shows are every Saturday in August.

Jon Elvert explores The Perseids Meteor Shower Aug. 12 at 7 p.m. A tour of the season's night sky, identifying constellations and planets, is included.

Also playing in the Planetarium are "TimeSpace," an adventure covering the Big Bang, the doom of the dinosaurs, the sudden appearance of Halley's Comet in the Yucatan Sky and Apollo 11's moon landing to the year 3001, and "The Milky Way," an interactive exhibit depicting the stars of the entire Milky Way as seen from Earth.

Michael Crespo, Elizabeth Weinstein,
William Greiner & Sam Losavio

Janice Evans, gallery owner Liz Walker
& AWA president Dana Mosby

AWA officers Dana Mosby, Virginia Donner,
Elaine Atkinson & Sarah Fergus

Gallery owner Liz Walker, second from left,
with featured artists Nancy Jo Poirrier,
Nancy Smitherman & Carol Creel

'LOUISIANA HOT & SPICY,' the latest show by members of the Associated Women in the Arts, opened at Elizabethan Gallery July 17 and runs through Aug. 25. Featured artists include Nancy Jo Poirrier, Wilma Roy, Sarah Fergus, Nancy Smitherman, Dana Mosby, Virginia Donner, Torie Holeman, Donna Kilbourne, Carol Creel and Janice Evans.