

THE ADVOCATE

February 6, 2009

THE INDEPENDENT VOICE OF SOUTH LOUISIANA

FLY NOW - AVIATION POSTERS FROM THE SMITHSONIAN'S NATIONAL AIR & SPACE MUSEUM: continues through March 8, Louisiana Art & Science Museum. In celebration with the Baton Rouge Metropolitan Airport's 60th anniversary, LASM showcases 40 posters dating from 1860 to the present. (225) 344-5272.

ARTIST EXHIBIT: continues through Feb. 26, Baton Rouge Gallery, 1442 City Park Ave. See the works of Paulo Steven Diniz, Randell Henry, Brian Kelly and Tom Richard. (225) 383-1470.

SPOTLIGHT - JAMES SURLS EXHIBIT: continues through March 15, LASM. Abstract forms made by Surls, who has been carving, hacking, burning, peeling and shaping pieces of wood into sculptures for more than 35 years. (225) 344-5272.

JOHN DE JACOBARTIN

Photos provided by LASM

Aviation history on display

The Louisiana Art & Science Museum is showcasing 40 aviation posters dating from 1860 to the present. It's partly to help celebrate the Baton Rouge Metropolitan Airport's 60th anniversary. The exhibit continues through March 8. Call (225) 344-5272 or go to <http://www.lasm.org> for details.

